

Mom's Favorites

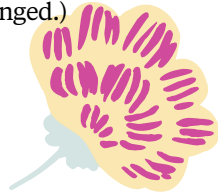

Mother's Day got you stumped? Assemble your kid(s) and interview mom—or someone who has a mom-like role in their life. If you want, turn the living room into a talk show set and have someone ask the questions while someone else writes down the answers. Grab your phone and record it—and play a theme song!

Mom doesn't have to answer all of these.

The goal is for you to get enough info to plan a Mother's Day surprise. (If you think you know the answer to some of these, ask anyway. Her favorites may have changed.)

To relax, do you prefer alone time or family time? (Your answer will not hurt our feelings . . . really!)

If you could do anything for a day, what would you do?

What chore/task you would like a break from for a day?

What's your favorite thing to do with our family?

What's your favorite memory with our family?

Is there something you've always wanted to try?
