I AM WHO HE SAYS I AM!

---

When God created the world He created so many different things in so many different ways. He made reindeer with big antlers. He made Lions that roar. He made daisies and rivers, the moon and the clouds. He made so many beautiful things. But when God made you and me, He looked in a mirror. He used a reflection of who He is to make you!

How cool is that?

That doesn't mean that you and Jesus have the same type of hair or that you and Him are the same height, but it means that God designed you so that you could be like Him. He didn't make anything else in the world that way, only when He designed boys and girls did He use is own reflection. When we make the decision to follow Jesus and have Him be our Savior, then He sees us like He sees His perfect Son!

So we can be who Christ says we are!

Parent's Guide:

Start each day with declarations over yourself and your children, speaking the truth of who you are in Christ. Once you know Christ as your redeemer, God sees you as He sees His own Son because of His finished work on the cross. Walk in that authority as you lead your family! Speak it repeatedly over your home, your kids, your family and yourself.

Kid's Guide:

Once you have received Jesus, you are a friend of God. He sees you as a perfect child of God, and He loves when you remind yourself that it is true. He wants to hear you say the things He already knows about you!
